

Breeding Part Three: Care of the Foal and Young Horse

- I can outline the care required for the mare and foal during the 24 hours after birth
- I can outline the care of the mare and foal from three weeks to weaning
- I am aware of the type of handling the foal will require
- I know when passporting and microchipping is required
- I can outline different methods of weaning
- I know about castration
- I know what is involved in caring for a young horse from weaning to two years old
- I know the importance of regular farrier visits
- I know the importance of providing the correct nutrition for the mare and foal, and young horse